Rules Governing the 2012 Preliminary Competition

1. Contestants are eligible if they are 35 years of age or younger on March 24, 2012.
2. Preliminary contestants are required to submit a CD recorded performance of two works: One of the works listed above under category "A" and a work meeting the requirement of category "B" listed above. In the Preliminary Competition, work "B" is to be a single movement only, but it may be a movement from a multi-movement work. Compositions employing additional instruments will not be accepted. The required work listed in category "C" will be performed only by the finalists at the final competition.
3. The first 50 entries to arrive at First Presbyterian Church, Fort Wayne, Indiana, between January 1, 2012 and February 1, 2012, and which meet all of the requirements specified in the stated rules, will be accepted as entries in the 2012 competition. Recordings received without items 5a through 5e listed below will not be judged. All submitted recordings must consist of performances recorded no earlier than October 1, 2011.
4. The recording of each composition must be continuous, (that is, as if performing the piece in front of an audience - no stopping the recording between movements of the Bach sonata). The recording must be without editing of any kind, and it must contain no speaking by anyone. No name is to appear on the CD. The performer's name is to be included on the return address of the mailing wrapper and with or inside the recording. A removable label may be attached, but the CD itself should not be permanently labeled.
5. In addition to the recording, the following must be submitted:
 - a. Contestant's Application form providing all requested information and signatures.
 - b. A completed and properly signed Confirmation of Recorded Performance form.

Judges at the Preliminary and Final Competition will not be informed of the contestant's identity until the judging has been completed.
